Want to join an Underwater Research Group?

We have recently witnessed the birth of GLUG - the Great Lakes Underwater Group, a bunch of locals diving and photographing the best of our dive sites. If you live here and are keen to join, they only need your time, as all dives (both shore & boat) are supplied by GLUG. They are currently building a website, but in the meantime, if you'd like to join, please email us at info@actiondivers.com.au and we'll pass your contact details along!
